

Daily Plan ~ Day 8

Saturday, June 21, 2003

Day Coordinators: Carie Szalay and Clara Ruvolo

The Academy of Natural Sciences and Palmyra Cove Nature Park

Estuary Portion: Palmyra Cove Nature Park, NJ to Philadelphia, PA

3 miles round trip ~ Will be traveling aboard a 75' schooner sailboat, the North Wind, around the Philadelphia section of the Delaware River

- 7:00 A.M. Early morning birding with NJ Audubon Society members for campers and day-trippers.
- 9:00 A.M. Campers and day-trippers will breakfast and register at Palmyra Cove Nature Park.
- 9:30 A.M. Explore the new Palmyra Cove Nature Park Interpretive Center.
- 10:30 A.M. Travel on your own to Independence Seaport Museum, about 10 miles, to board sailboat. The sailboat is docked at Penn's Landing.
To park at the museum, the cost is $ 10.00. Parking is also available at several attended lots along Penn's Landing as well as at meters and several lots within the Olde City vicinity. These options may provide cheaper parking.
- 11:00 A.M. Safety Talk and then leave Philadelphia City Sail dock
On board programming includes Water quality sampling, plankton ecology study, history of Delaware River in Philadelphia, navigation, and Pennsylvania Environmental Council's discussion of Delaware Riverfront development plans.
- 12:00 P.M. Light lunch while on board
- 1:30 P.M. Sojourn conclusion event at the Philadelphia City Sail dock.

If you wish, drive or take public transportation to enjoy the water-themed "River Rendezvous Weekend" programming at The Academy of Natural Sciences until 5:00 P.M.

Many thanks to today's Sojourn Partners:

The Academy of Natural Sciences; Palmyra Cove Nature Park; Philadelphia City Sail; Pennsylvania Environmental Council; Independence Seaport Museum; NJ Audubon Society
